

Copyright Release

This material is being provided for non profit, research or educational use. Patrons are not allowed to distribute, modify, sell, exchange or transmit any materials that can be accessed through The Diaz-Ayala Cuban and Latin American Popular Music Collection.

The Sound and Image Department at FIU Library does not claim copyright for any item in the collection. The user assumes all responsibility for clearing reproduction rights and for any infringement of United States copyright law (U.S. Code, Title 17).

Important note: The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study scholarship, or research". If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a copy or reproduction purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
