The Diaz-Ayala Music Collection proudly presents as part of its Fridays of Musicalia series:

Exploring the Musical Work of Mike Porcel

Join Musicologist Eurydice Losada for an opportunity to become familiar with the work of Cuban-American musician Mike Porcel. Porcel was a student of the renowned guitarist-educator Leopoldina Núñez and of the excellent teacher and composer Harold Gramatges. With solid musical training, Porcel began his professional career in the late 60s, working extensively as a director of pop and rock bands, singer-songwriter, arranger and composer. Porcel's work has continued to grow in excellence and creativity. He will be performing during the event!

THE LECTURE WILL BE PRESENTED IN SPANISH

Co-Sponsored by The Cuban Research Institute at FIU
